

Topic: Phenomenology, Ethics, Politics: The Question of Difference/Unity
 Director: Peg Birmingham

Courses

Adriaan Peperzak	Levinas: Ontology, Ethics, Politics
Bernard Flynn	Hannah Arendt: Political Philosophy without a Bannister
Charles E. Scott	Foucault: Ethics and the Fragmented Subject
Drucilla Cornell	Ethical Feminism and the Promise of Utopia

Lectures

Fabio Ciaramelli	Levinas/Arendt: The Problem of Beginnings
Wilhelm Wurzer	Sigetic Shadows in Other Beginnings
Dominique Janicaud	Heidegger and the Political
Michel Haar	Ethics as Traumatization
Françoise Dastur	Husserl and the Political
Eliane Escoubas and André Schuwer	The Disclosure of the Who: Arendt ( The Human Condition ) and Heidegger ( The Human Condition ): Heidegger's Interpretation of Hölderlin's Hymn "Der Ister"
Fred Dallmayr	Post-Metaphysics and Democracy
Jacques Taminiaux	Professional Thinking
Reginald Lilly	Making a Difference: Hegel and Foucault
Philippe van Haute	Foucault/Lacan: Confession and the Law
Rebecca Comay	Sirens' Song/Penelope's Web: Adorno, Feminism, and the Bonds of the Subject: Unraveling the Dialectic of Enlightenment
Peg Birmingham	Foucault/Arendt: Power and the Law
Tina Chanter	Woman as Other: The Legacy of Simone de Beauvoir for Contemporary French Feminism
Idit Dobbs-Weinstein and Kate Mehuron	A-Humanism Feminism: A Conversation
Paul Davies	Levinas' Vocabulary: A Word on the Caress
Arleen Dallery	Bodies, Identities, and Sexual Difference in American and French Feminist Thought
Christopher Fynsk	Suppose that we were to take the Rectoral Address seriously . . . Gerard Granel, De l'université

Text Seminar Leaders

Fabio Ciaramelli, Simon Critchley, James Faulconer, Susan Hanson, Ashraf Noor, John Tich, Leo Bostar, Michael Gendre, William McNeill, Dennis Schmidt, Charles Freeland, Utong Kovindha, Mario Moussa, David Wood, Arleen Dallery, Charles Shepherdson